

CALIFORNIA LATINO MENTAL HEALTH CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE!

BUILDING PERSONALISMO, SIMPATIA, AND COMPETENCE AMONG MENTAL HEALTH PROVIDERS SERVING THE LATINO COMMUNITY

Conference Activities Include:

- Keynote Address by: Steve Lopez, PhD Professor of Clinical Psychology and Chicano Studies at UCLA
- Legislator Lunch Address by: Senator Gloria Romero, PhD
- Session Topics: Immigration, HIV and Latinos, families and children, gangs and youth, and health disparities
- Confirmed Speakers include Celia Falicov PhD, Anabel Bejarano PhD, Elena Flores, PhD, Luis Garcia PsyD, Armando Morales PhD, Eduardo Morales PhD
- Student Posters
- CE Units for Psychiatrists, Psychologists, MFTs, Social Workers, and RNs

Saturday, March 17, 2007
8:00 a.m. — 5:00 p.m.

Dinner with Mariachi
6:00 p.m. — 8:00 p.m.

Cal State Fullerton
Titan Student Union A
800 N. State College Blvd.

CLPA Members: $50
Non-CLPA Members: $60
Students: $10

(All meals and entertainment included)

You may register online at:

<http://hhd.fullerton.edu/lmhc/>

For more information contact:

Shannon Curry

shannonjeanne@gmail.com

Hosted by CSU Fullerton's Department of Counseling and the California Latino Psychological Association, funded by the Office of the President, CSUF